EFFICIENCY CONFERENCE.

Rev. George A. Joplin and Miss Gra-han, noted throughout the State for their Bible School work, will conduct an Efficiency Conference at the Christian church next Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings. This is in the interest of all Bible schools of the county and it is hoped that it will be well attended.

SOME RABBITS.

Mr. William Whitaker, who lives in the Buckeye section of the county, takes the rag off the bush when it comes to bagging the "molly cotton tails".
In three nights last week he caught in traps and snares 225 rabbits and took them to the Lexington market where he disposed of them at 30 cents each.
He said it was't very good weather for rabbits either.

lic square, rents for $450.00. Price

GOOD MINISTREL.

A good crowd turned out to hear the Vogel minstrel last Monday night and all who saw it speaks in glowing terms of the entertainment. It will probably return for another engagement some time during the next year.

FINED FOR ASSAULT.

Charged with a breach of the peace, Story Herron was fined $40 and cost in the police court last week. He assaulted Burton Stapp, apparently without any provocation. Young Stapp is a son of County Judge elect, Forest Stapp, while young Herron is a son of ex-city Marshall, L. E. Herron.

ADVISORY BOARD

Attorneys R. H. Tomlinson, G. C.
Walker and J. E. Robinson have been appointed as a legal advisory board for the selective draft. These gentlemen, together with practically every lawyer in Lancaster have volunteered their services to assist the men subject to draft in filling out their questionnaires and to render them any other advice they should need.

TEACHERS SALARIES.

State Superintendent V. O. Gilbert, in a letter to Miss Jennie Higgins, our county superintendent, regarding the salaries of the teachers, says there was not sufficient money in the State treasury to pay the November salary, but hopes to meet this obligation by the last of this week. He also says that he hopes by the last of December to pay all salaries for that month.

RICHMOND DAILY

If there is anyone in Richmond, that isn't proud of the Richmond Daily Register, that Shelton Sauley is handing them every morning, they should move out of town. We don't believe such is the case however, for the merchants are patronizing it heavily and with such a formidable start, we predict that its success is assured. If Sauley can not make it a success it's useless for anyone else to attempt it.

WANTED.

Good fat turkeys, from Dec. 6th, to 18th. Get them in early as prices are liable to drop. Will pay highest market price.
12-6-21. H. B. Northcott.

A soldier's will written on the back of his sweetheart's photograph was probated in London the other day. He had simply written, "In the event of my death, I leave all my effects, including all my money, to this young lady". The will was dated April, and the soldier was killed two months later at Ypres. The government turned the photograph over to the detectives at Scotland Yard, who found the original.

MOORMAN CALLED

At a meeting of the Board of Officers of the Christian church yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. R. Mooreman, of St.
Joseph, Mo., was unanimously called to accept the the pastorate of the Lancaster Christian church. The call will be ratified by the members of this church next Sunday morning.

Rev. Mooreman was in the city last September and while here made many friends, who were favorably impressed with him as a speaker and predict that his work here will be successful. Dr.
Mooreman is 31 years of age, has an estimable wife and one child, all of whom will receive a hearty welcome upon their advent in our midst.

SPLENDID LECTURE.

Those who attended the lecture at the court house last Monday night, given by Dr. Alexander Johnson, under the auspices of the Woman's Club, on the condition of the Feeble Minded in Kentucky were well entertained by the speaker, who seemed to have his subject well prepared, as he has made a study of such conditions during the entire past year.

A plan is now being agitated throughout Kentucky, to have the next Legislature to pass a law, segregating the unfortunates, in a home where they will be well cared for and believe the state of the $75, a year it now pays toward their support.

THRIFT STAMPS.

There were many patriotic people throughout our country who for lack of funds could not participate in the glorious privilege offered in the Liberty Loan Bonds, one of the means of financing our part of the World War. Now a wise government has developed a new plan in which everyone can take a part. This idea grows out of a sense of justice to the great American people in allowing even the smallest to do his bit for his country, proving again that this is not one man's war but belongs to every individual.

In addition to encouraging patriotism
this new act also encourages thrift, a new lesson that America needs to learn.
A Thrift Stamp sells for twenty-five cents and are on sale at the Post Office. It is hoped that the weekly savings of many families will be invested in these stamps, the amount of which will be returned to them later,
and in the meantime help win the war.

This campaign is to continue a year with the expectation of raising $2,000, 000,000.00.

CIRCUIT COURT NEWS

Work in the Circuit Court has been progressing slowly, but during the past week several commonwealth cases and a number of civil cases have been disposed of.

The grand jury has returned about a dozen indictments, mostly for misdemeanors. This body will probably adjourn finally tomorrow.

One of the most important commonwealth cases tried during the past week, was the case of the Commonwealth against George Broadus, colored, charged with criminal libel. Broadus lives in the Paint Lick section of the county and does not bear a very good reputation he having been in court on several previous occasions charged with the illicit sale of liquor.

He was indicted at the September term, charged with writing an insulting letter to a Mrs. Floyd, a respectable white lady, who lives also in that section. In the letter he proposed illegal and improper relations, and many thought the penalty he received was a light one. However he drew a fine of $500, and a jail sentence of nine months.
The following commonwealth cases were disposed of during the past week.

Commonwealth vs. Ben Moberly, for horse stealing was given two years in penitentiary.

Same vs. John Beazley for having liquor in possession for purpose of sale, was fined $100 and cost and a jail sentence of 10 days.

George Miller charged with false swearing, was found not guilty.

Commonwealth vs. Ben Boatright, charged with U. S. L. forfeited his bond and was fined $50 and 10 days in jail.

Same vs. Wesley Hager, charged with gambling, fined $100 and costs.

Same vs. Jesse Elmore for selling liquor, fined $50 and a 10 days jail sentence.

LARGE TURNIPS AND PUMPKIN.

Dr. W. D. Pryor brought to this office a few days ago two large turnips, raised by Mr. Hiram Ray, of this county, that weighed six pounds each. They are the largest we have seen this year.

Mr. George Ballard is the champion pumpkin raiser, having brought in one that tips the beam at 55 pounds and was a perfect specimen.

TOBACCO MARKET

OPENS HIGH.

The tobacco market opened at Lexington last Monday; at Danville, last Tuesday and at Richmond yesterday, with the highest averages ever recorded in the history of the tobacco markets in Kentucky.

Common grades of tobacco have increased over last year about 100 per cent while the better grades or the wrappers have only advanced about 50 per cent. It is estimated that Garrard county will produce about six millions pounds this year, and at the present market the entire crop will average nearly 30 cents a pound or a total of nearly two million dollars will go into the pockets of the farmers of this county alone.

TURKEY SERVED

SOLDIER BOYS.

That the Lancaster boys were well taken care of for their Thanksgiving dinner is vouched for in a letter from our friend, Ben Wood, who is now a Mess Sergeant at Camp Zachariah Taylor. In his letter to the Record he says:

"I am sending you a menu of our Thanksgiving dinner. Some of the Garrard county people are under the impression that we don't have anything to eat down here and a glance at our menu will make some of them wish that 'Uncle Sam' was feeding them,
for he is some 'Uncle' believe me."

"I made up the bill of fare and it was prepared by Mike Simpson, Hollis Warren and myself, all of whom are getting to be experts.

"Lieut. Harry Ware was our honored guest for dinner and he pronounced it the best he ever ate."

The menu follows:
Roast Turkey Bread Dressing
Cranberry Sauce Celery
Roast Pork Scalloped Oysters
Candied Yams, Mashed Potatoes
Mince meat pie, Sliced Peaches
Caramel Cake Coffee Bread Fruit.

He adds that he served 119 men and that the total dinner cost $125.

VICTOR BOGEART RETURNS

After Trip To Europe.

Mr. Victor Bogeart, of Lexington, who lectured in Lancaster last spring and gave a graphic description of the sinking of Louvain, has since that time made another visit to his native country. While there he was received by the King and in this audience he told him of the sympathy of the American people and assured him that they would not make peace until the wrongs of his little country had been righted.

While in England, Mr. Bogeart had the privilege of visiting his son who had been wounded on the Belgian front.

ATTENTION REGISTRANTS.

Take Warning And Read This Carefully.

A letter to the local County Exemption Board, from Adjutant General, J. Tandy Ellis, says:

"All registrants should furnish their Local Boards with their present address, if it has been changed from the address given on the registration cards, so that Questionnaires, which will begin to be mailed, Dec. 15th, 1917, will reach such registrants without delay.
Registrants are bound by law to keep themselves advised of all the proceedings in respect of them and failure to do so, may result in their losing right to claim exemption or discharge."

Section 268 of the Selective Service
Registration, says this to Registrants:
"You are required by law to return the Questionnaire filled out in accordance with instructions contained herein, within seven days from date of this notice. Failure to do so is a misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment for one year and may result in the loss of valuable rights and in immediate induction into military service."

Local attorneys have volunteered their services to help the registrants in making out these questions and answering them and beginning Dec. 15th., forty-five a day will be sent out until the entire 900 names have been exhausted. This will mean that it will take about twenty days for the work to be done, handling 45 men a day.

A Wonderful Furnace!

Heats Through
One Register

The Caloric
Pipeless Furnace is a revelation
in simple, efficient and economical home heating. It has no
pipes and but one register. It sends warm air by natural circulation through the whole house, drawing down at the same time the return air through a properly constructed channel to be heated again and restored to the circulation.
There is absolutely no heat waste in this method. Just as a living spring constantly pours up fresh cool water so the

The Original Patented Pipeless Furnace

is constantly pouring up revitalized warm air. It's as natural as nature itself and very economical of fuel.
The Caloric is positively guaranteed to reduce your fuel bill by a third at least, and the double ribbed firepot (500 square inches more radiating surface than other firepots) for five years' solid service.

Why waste heat in long, cold pipes and wall flues? Why not send it directly up where you live and need it? That's common sense and economy. Hundreds of satisfied users say the Caloric is a heating wonder, and you will agree if you install it. Let us show it to you.

I wished to avoid an operation and on advice of a friend tried Mayr's Wonderful Remedy with excellent results as since taking it about 2 years ago my trouble has entirely disappeared. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. THE BEST TEST Is The Test Of Time.

Years ago this Lancaster resident told of good results from using Doan's Kidney Pills. Now Mrs. C. T. Brummett of Crab Orchard St., confirms the former statement—says there has been no return of the trouble. Can Lancaster people ask for more convincing testimony?

Mrs. Brummett, says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had pains thru my back. At times I was nervous. Doan's Kidney Pills made me feel much better and stronger in every way." (Statement given February 6, 1912)

LASTING BENEFIT.—On November 17 1916, Mrs. Brummett said: "I have had no return of kidney trouble since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I know they are a good remedy and I often recommend them to others." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

He Removed the Danger Signal

Frank W. Sherman, Laconia, N. Y., writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble, had a tired feeling in my back, did not have any ambition and felt all tired out. I used Foley Kidney Pills and in a few days began to feel better, and now I have entirely recovered and have had no return of my painful symptoms." One cannot help becoming nervous and feeling tired and worn out when the kidneys fail to filter and throw out of the system the poisonous waste matter that causes kidney troubles and bladder ailments. Backache is one of Nature's danger signals that the kidneys are clogged up and inactive. It is often followed by rheumatism, annoying bladder or urinary disorders, puffiness under the eyes, swollen ankles and painful joints. Foley Kidney Pills get right at the source of trouble. They invigorate the kidneys to healthy action and when the kidneys properly perform their functions the poisonous waste matter is eliminated from the system.

"BEN HUR" AT THE LEXINGTON OPERA HOUSE.

Klaw and Erlanger's Stupendous Production Of Gen. Lew Wallace's Famous Story To Be Shown On Dec. 12-13.

Klaw and Erlanger's splendid production of Gen. Lew Wallace's famous "Ben Hur", with cast, scenery and equipment equal to any of those that have made it the most notable play for nearly two decades, begins an engagement at the Opera House, Lexington, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Dec. 12th and 13th, with a matinee on Thursday.

"Ben Hur" appeals alike to habitual theatre-goers and those who seldom seek enjoyment in theatre offerings. It is unlike any other production before the public today, its success has been unprecedented. In a spectacular sense "Ben Hur" has been acclaimed the most magnificent and elaborate stage entertainment ever shown and the present production will be, in the most minute detail, identical with the former New York productions.

The religious impressiveness and dramatic power of Gen. Wallace's wonderful novel have been preserved with faithfulness and dignity by William Young, who made this stage version, while the incidental music and chorus, written especially by Edgar S. Kelly, gives added charm to the performance. More than 250 persons are employed in this stupendous production, which includes a strong dramatic cast, a large chorus of trained voices, a ballet of expert dancers and scores of extra people who add greatly to the general effect. Besides, there are twenty horses for the wonderful chariot race in which there are five contestants.

The management requests that patrons of this fine spectacle be in their seats by 8 o'clock in the evening performances and at 2 o'clock at the matinee which takes place on Thursday. The spectacle of the Star of Bethlehem, which is the first scene, requires that the entire auditorium be darkened and it will be impossible to seat anyone until after that prelude is over.

Prices range from 50c up to $2.00 in addition to war tax.

Mail orders, when accompanied with remittances, with an enclosed self-addressed envelope stamped for reply, will be filled on receipt.

RED BLOOD AMERICANISM IS COMING TO THE FRONT

Right now this Country is calling for men of stout hearts and sound bodies. It needs them to keep Old Glory triumphant and unsullied in the air.

The exigency now confronting us emphasizes, as nothing else could do, the importance of good health, both as an individual and national asset.

It gives point to the suggestion, often emanating from this office, that everybody should guard their health as a priceless possession. When you find yourself running down and not exactly keyed up to the fighting pitch, as is the case with everybody at times. You ought to come to Nature's relief and take a course of

WAR TALKS

By UNCLE DAN

Number Three

How War Methods Have Changed
Everybody Must Help.

"Hello, Uncle Dan, Jimmie and I have been waiting for you."

"Sorry if I have kept you long," said Uncle Dan. "Your mother has been telling me how bashful I used to be. She said if a girl spoke to me I would blush to my hair roots. Well, I reminded her of the time your father first came to see her and the joke we played on them, so I guess that will hold her for a while."

Continuing, Uncle Dan said: "You want to talk more about the war, do you? Well, war methods have undergone many changes and they are still changing. No two wars are fought alike. In early times, the weapons were stones, clubs, spears, bows and arrows, swords, etc. In this kind of warfare, victory was with the strong right arm. Men of enormous size and strength were the great warriors. The invention of gunpowder, however, has changed all this. It has enabled men to kill one another at a considerable distance, and do it wholesale. The war, as we know it now, is a combination of chemicals, machinery, mathematical calculations and highly trained men. Just think of it! Airplanes, submarines, armored tanks, or caterpillars, poison gases, and curtains of fire are all used for the first time in this war; and they are destructive beyond anything heretofore known."

"The methods followed by the Kaiser and his allies are simply devilish. He must answer in history to the killing of thousands of innocent women and children. He has broken every international law and every rule of warfare; he has bombarded hospitals and undefended cities, sunk Red Cross ships on errands of mercy; he has destroyed cathedrals and priceless treasures of art that can never be replaced; he has made slaves of his prisoners; he has tried to get us into war with Japan; his emissaries have blown up our ships, burned our factories and fired our forests. He knows no mercy or honor. The most charitable view to take of this blood-thirsty tyrant is that he is crazy."

"One thing is certain," continued Uncle Dan, with great emphasis. "Our liberty, the safety of our homes and our country, and the security of the world demand the speedy and absolute overthrow of the Kaiser and crushing out once and forever the reign of Prussian brutality."

"How about the German people," said Billie.

Uncle Dan replied: "The splendid German people were happy, thrifty, prosperous and contented. They have been tricked into war and made to suffer the tortures of the damned; they have been cruelly and systematically deceived. God grant that the real facts may get to them, and if they do, Lord help the Kaiser!"

"Of course the allies will win," said Mrs. Graham.

"Probably so," said Uncle Dan. "But if we are to win, we must go the limit. We must check the awful destruction to shipping by the German submarines, or we may not be able to get food and supplies to our own men and to our allies; we must also put hundreds of thousands, and perhaps millions, of first-class soldiers in the battle line."

"Food is the first consideration," Uncle Dan continued. "No army can hold out against hunger. It has been said that food will win the war, and this is largely true. Hence the importance of the farm in the war plans of our country."

Mrs. Graham interrupted by saying: "In view of the importance of farming, don't you think, Daniel, that the farmers ought to be exempted from war service?"

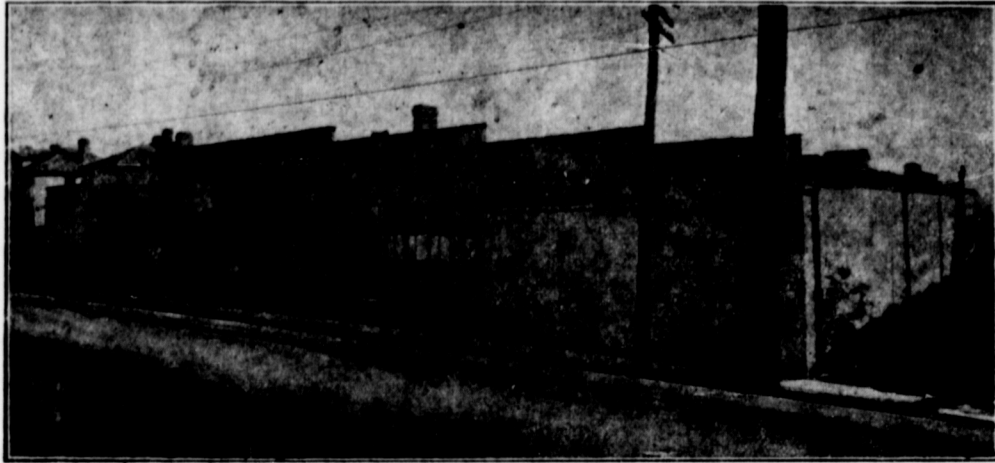

"No, a thousand times no," said Uncle Dan, striking the table so hard to emphasize his protest that he tipped over a vase of flowers. "We must have no class legislation. The duty to serve is the common duty of all, and no class must be relieved of this obligation. The question of exemption must be a personal one and decided by the facts surrounding each case. In no other way can we have a square deal, and to insure this, it is the duty of congress to pass immediately the Chamberlain bill, or some such measure, which is fair to all classes. It would settle all these questions and do it fairly. Safety now and safety hereafter demands such legislation, and let me suggest that you and your friends get busy with your congressman and senators and urge them to prompt action."

"It is time for us to realize that we are not living in a fool's paradise; that this great country of ours cost oceans of blood and treasure and it is only due to the loyalty, sacrifice and service of our forefathers that we have a country, and it is our highest duty to preserve it unimpaired and pass it on to posterity, no matter what the cost may be. Our citizenship and their ancestors came from all parts of the world to make this country a home and enjoy its blessings and opportunities; hence, in the crisis before us, it is the duty of everyone to stand squarely back of our country and be prepared to defend the flag. Every one in this crisis is either pro-American or pro-German. Great as the country is, there is not room enough for two flags."

Tuesday, December 4th

We will continue auction sales every day, excepting Saturday and holidays from that date on. You can rest assured that Danville will be the highest market in this section, as we are the closest market to the largest re-drying and manufacturing plants in the world. Our accommodations for both man and beast are as good as the best. The loose leaf floor plan is the best and only way of marketing tobacco to insure the highest dollar to the grower. These facts have been demonstrated in Virginia, North and South Carolina, where they have been selling tobacco on this plan for the past fifty years. Drive your wagon to the Danville market. You will always find some one to attend to your wants, and welcome you. During the sale we will do our very best to get you the highest market price for your tobacco. All the large factory buyers will be on hand on first day of the sale. We have experienced men in all departments to look after your interests, including two of the finest auctioneers in this or any other state. Our charges for selling tobacco will be the same as last year. The fact that everything else has increased makes no difference here. The warehouses do not buy tobacco except on sale at auction. We do a strictly commission business. Free stables and no rejection fee. Appreciating your past patronage, we hope you will see your way clear to bring us your tobacco, guaranteeing you the highest market prices, absolutely accurate weights and an all around square deal. You are cordially invited to attend our opening sale, DECEMBER 4th.

SOLDIERS' GIFTS.

To Be Guarded At Louisville Courier-Journal Building.

Santa Claus Will Fly In The Air-plane To Camp Zachary Taylor.

Maj. Gen. Harry C. Hale, in command of the troops at Camp Zachary Taylor, has arranged to provide a strong guard day and night for the storeroom in the Louisville Courier-Journal building, in which will be kept the Christmas gifts for the soldiers. The Courier-Journal has set apart a spacious room for these presents, and the Committee on Receipt and Storage will be assisted in caring for the gifts by a detail of soldiers. Presents for the boys in khaki are already beginning to arrive at the headquarters of the Courier-Journal Christmas Cheer Club. Some of these gifts are directed to individuals, while others are sent to the general fund. Each gift is recorded as it is received and will be cared for until Christmas eve when it will be placed on one of the Christmas trees at the camp.

A spectacular feature of the Christmas eve festivities will be an airplane flight of Santa Claus in khaki from the top of the Courier-Journal building to the camp. Santa Claus will be piloted by a veteran air warrior, D. I. Lamb, who recently returned from five years air service in Europe. Mr. Lamb comes to Louisville as an instructor in aviation. He was until recently a member of the Royal Flying Corps stationed in London to defend the English capital against German air attacks, and he has had many thrilling experiences.

The flight will begin at 6:30 p. m. A special runway will be built on the top of the Courier-Journal building for the start. The Santa Claus airplane will be illuminated with red, white and blue electric lights and Pilot Lamb will control a strong searchlight which he will direct at the crowd below him as he wings his way over the housetops to the army camp. The airplane will bear a message from Henry Watterson editor of the Courier-Journal to Gen. Hale.

The Courier-Journal Christmas Cheer Club is urging those who intend to send gifts to the soldiers to do so at once instead of waiting until the eleventh hour. It is important that the Christmas Cheer Club know at the earliest possible moment just how much it can depend on in the way of cooperation from those who intend to send presents instead of money. The gifts should be addressed to Santa Claus, Lincoln Division, care of the Courier-Journal Christmas Cheer Club.

The Central Record will be glad to receive and forward to the Courier-Journal Camp Zachary Taylor Christmas Cheer Club any money or gifts which the people of this community desire to send.

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops tickling throat, and hacking coughs, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS. Mr. Chas. Baker, writes: "My wife would not think of using any other cough medicine, as Foley's Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it always as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates."

Migration of Birds.

Until the acquisition of Alaska by the United States it was a wonder where certain wild fowl went when they migrated from temperate climes to the approach of summer, as well as snowbirds and other small species of the feathered tribe. It was afterward found that their habitat in summer was the waters of Alaska—the Yukon river and the lakes of that hyperborean region.

Sell Wood by Pound.

Circassian walnut is sold by the pound or the ton and not by the foot. As early as 116 B. C. it was introduced into Italy from Persia. Russia is the chief source of Circassian walnut. The logs are so heavy that they will not float, and are sold from the forest with their bark on. Only the heart of the wood is used, and it is the crooked, irregular logs that possess the best-figured wood. Even very old trees rarely have a clear length of more than ten feet.

Nativity of Peach Tree.

The peach tree is a native of Persia and China. It was brought to Italy by the Romans in the time of the Emperor Claudius, was cultivated in Europe as early as 1550 and brought to America about 1690. Its name is derived from Persico, its native country. The ancients regarded it with distrust, as according to Pliny they supposed the king of Persia had sent it into Egypt to poison the inhabitants with whom he was at war. The Chinese have traditions of a peach tree of knowledge and another of immortality.

Talking Fire Alarm.

The phonograph and telephone are employed in a South Carolina inventor's automatic fire alarm that calls up a central operator and tells her just where the blaze is starting.

Our Heroes.

Man's great actions are performed in minor struggles. There are noble and mysterious triumphs which no eye sees, no renown rewards, and no flourish of trumpets salutes. Life, misfortune, isolation, abandonment, and poverty are battlefields which have their heroes.

Thought for the Day.

The souls of emperors and cobblers are cast in the same mold. The same reason that makes us wrangle with a neighbor causes a war betwixt princes. —Montaigne.

A FAMILY MEDICINE

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught, Relief From Head-ache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.—Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Thedford's Black-Draught; in fact, it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us children complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty regular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc., and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remedy for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way, regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Thedford's the original and genuine. B 79

Everybody Counts.

The humblest individual exerts some influence, either for good or evil, upon others.—Beecher.

Kindness Necessary.

We can dispense with a great many qualities in the people we love. It is not necessary for them to be brilliant or wise or witty or rich or beautiful. But we cannot imagine loving anyone who is incapable of kindness. That is the characteristic we cannot do without.—Exchange.

Mushroom, First Plant.

The mushroom in form of a slime fold was the first plant to evolve on earth. The algae plants of the first seas thrust out a fungus on land to draw minerals from the overhanging rocks. On this primitive fungus lichens evolved and the three plants interbred each other, three hundred million years ago and today. Later, true mushrooms evolved, at first with small caps, forming the first food supply for the later arriving living creatures.

The mushroom is a creature that grows rapidly, and is said to live for many years, and it is said to be the only creature that grows steadily and regularly up to forty years, after which it declines at an increasing rate to the age of sixty years. The strength of females decreases at a more uniform rate from age to age, while the males, at seven years of age, are weaker than males by 22 pounds, at twenty years of age by 36 pounds.

About Envelopes.

It is said that envelopes were invented during the early days of Louis XIV of France. In 1680 M. De Valley established a private post and placed boxes at the corner of the streets for letters enclosed in envelopes that were sold in offices established for that purpose. It seems likely, however, that envelopes were in use before this period because envelopes so used in France were special post-paid envelopes. But precisely what year is marked by the first invention of envelopes is unknown.

Peanuts Are Hand Sorted.
Chinese peanuts are usually hand sorted by women after being sifted.

Makes His Own Castor Oil.

A druggist at Santander, U. S. of Colombia, has discovered that he could produce his own castor oil far more cheaply than import it. This has started a great boom in growing castor oil plants, and shipments of castor seed meal and of the beans are being made to New York.

Fair Warning.

In the reign of Charles II a certain worthy divine at Whitehall thus addressed himself to the auditory at the conclusion of his sermon: "In short, if you don't live up to the precepts of the gospel, but abandon yourselves to your irregular appetites, you must expect to receive your reward in a certain place which 'tis not good manners to mention here."—Laconics.

To Remove Oil Stains.

It has been found that oil stains on concrete floors may be removed by using a mixture of one pound of oxalic acid in three gallons of water, with enough wheat flour added to make a paste that can be applied with a brush. Allow the application to remain for two days, and then remove it with clean water and a scrubbing brush. A second application may be necessary in stubborn cases.

THE OLD ANDTHE NEW COUNCIL.

Monday night last witnessed the passing of the Old Council and the coming of the New. There is no use in discussing the relative merits of the Old Council and the New. Such discussion is idle and can result in no good to any person or the community. The Old Council is defeated. It has passed into history and must stand upon its record. The people have spoken clearly and with emphasis. The individual will should gracefully give way to the collective will of the community as expressed at the polls. At all times we should be big enough to put aside our individual interests for the general good.

It is the purpose of this paper to uphold the hands of the New Council in all worthy and honorable undertakings and objectives. We would reflect the true spirit of democracy. The fortunes or the pride of individuals or groups of individuals should not weigh against the welfare of the whole. The Old Council, as we believe, was made up of honorable, public spirited men, whose whole souls were energized by the motive of service to the people of the city. If mistakes were made they were trivial and few, and then it was because, if at all, of the failure of the planning or execution and not the purpose. They have gone the way of all city fathers. They have been defeated. It has been truly said by students of municipal politics that no mayor, councilman, or police officer can unflinchingly do his duty without suffering defeat. The difficulties which confronted the Old Council will ever live and will become problems for their successors. We warn the New Council to be on their guard and advise them to place the community's welfare above individual and personal power and interest and any species of favoritism and special privilege. You may expect in the enforcement of law, in the enactment of ordinances, in the making of franchise contracts to create antagonism, in running counter to self interest of individuals and groups and mayhap powerful service corporations who would infringe selfishly upon the rights of the people to enrich its coffers.

"Tis true and 'tis pity 'tis true,
 'Tis dammed if you don't and be dammed if you do."

But what of that if the city fathers come out with clean hands? The Old Council steps down and out without a suspicion of graft with their integrity unbending against threats of those who would exploit the community in their own interest and what is more against the pleasing flattery of those who would use them. They will leave to history their vindication, through their achievements, not as told and spoken by the thoughtless or those who have been misled but to the city's written records, through which it can only speak and be judged. The records show one dollar per month telephone service, as promised. The cheapest Electric Lighting franchise contract of any adjoining city, a great saving to the people both private and public. The water works problem solved in such a way as to furnish water and fire protection the year around, when heretofore we had a dry lake for weeks each year, and this without additional cost and a saving to the city of hundreds of dollars in the collection of water rents that otherwise would have been forfeited.

We hope for the New Council all success and a careful and worthy handling of the city's affairs. We are ready to assist and give them courage when we can conscientiously do so.

Every man who voted against the New Council should co-operate with them and the mayor in all just undertakings. Lets pull together for the city beautiful in physical attractiveness, moral proportions, and business efficiency and all will be well.

As one travels southward from the Sea of Galilee a great plain comes into view. It is mostly of sand, rock and barren soil, with here and there a starved shrub. It is 20 miles across and runs 35 miles toward Jerusalem, and more human destiny has been thrashed out upon it than upon any other territory of like size on earth.

Here Jonathan and Saul fought the Philistine, were beaten, punished and the cause of civilization was set back. Here Saladin beat King Richard and the Christian cross went down before the Mohammedan crescent. Here the Moslems first got their grasp on sacred Palestine and fought to make Constantinople the religious capital of the eastern world. Here Napoleon dreamed his dream of world-conquest, world-slavery to autocracy.

Today Turkish armies are fleeing toward this plain and may make their last stand therein. In the south, the British are pressing up from Gaza. To the east, the British are aiming toward this plain from the Euphrates. Coming down from Persia, is a Russian force. To the north are forces of the British, Australians, Armenians, Greeks, Serbians, French and Rumanians, pointing toward Constantinople and this plain. And permanent world-peace is their cause—liberty, brotherhood, civilization.

Turn to your Bible, at Revelations xiv:

"For they are the spirits of devils working miracles (German) which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty."

"And He gathered them together into a place."

And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven from the throne, saying "It is done!"

If the Turks get a proper beating in this plain, the central powers will likely "crack," and you may hear from the throne of Austria a great voice crying, "It is finished!"

Watch that plain! It is today called Esdraelon. The old Hebrew writer named it Armageddon.

COUNTY FAIRWell Attended And Much Interest Shown.

Owing to the limited time that was had to thoroughly advertise the Agriculture Fair held at the Rex Theater last Saturday, a limited number of exhibits were shown in the various classes, but the attendance all through the entire day, show that the people of the county are interested and when the next one is held during the latter part of the coming year, its success will have been assured.

County Agent W. H. Rogers and his assistant, Lou Tindler, deserve much credit for the work they did and to them alone is due the success of the first venture.

BUY RED CROSS SEALS.

FIRST. It gives everybody an opportunity to help a little bit in health work.

SECOND. It brings to the attention of all people the need of doing something to save themselves from tuberculosis and many other preventable and unnecessary diseases.

THIRD. As a preparedness measure for war, it is of vital importance to conserve the health and lives of the nation's fighting units. The money from the sale of Red Cross Seals goes into local health work, helps to do state health work and part of it goes to the National Red Cross to assist in their work.

PRESIDENT DEFINESWar Aims And Peace Terms.

President Wilson in a message to Congress, that is regarded as one of the most momentous declarations in American history, again has enunciated, but more strongly than ever before, America's purpose in the war. He also asks Congress to declare war against Austria-Hungary, the chief ally of Germany, but did not include in his request, Turkey and Bulgaria. Germany's other allies, declaring that they are "mere tools and do not yet stand in the direct path of our necessary action". The President reasserted that German power as now constituted, must be crushed and that then, when the German people have spokesmen whose word can be believed, "we shall be willing and glad to pay the full price and pay it ungrudgingly."

"Let there be no misunderstanding, our present and immediate task is to win the war and nothing shall turn us aside from it until it is accomplished. Every power and resource we possess, whether of men, or money, or of materials, is being devoted and will continue to be devoted to that purpose until it is accomplished."

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR

Mr. T. R. Moss, director of the State Food Commission, was in our city last Tuesday. While here our local chairman, Miss Tommie Francis, arranged for a meeting at the school Auditorium Tuesday afternoon, at which time Mr. Moss addressed the meeting, to a small but interested audience. We regret that the meeting had to be arranged so hastily, for a much larger crowd was due Mr. Moss, who enlightened the merchants present as to their duties toward conserving the food, which he said was one of the most vital duties imposed upon the people during the war which is now on.

THE MACHINE GUN

When one takes the trouble to investigate, Americans are proven to be a very inventive nation yet because of their great modesty they seldom claim and never boast of what they have done and often other peoples and nations take the article, develop it, and sometimes enlarge upon it and claim it as their own. In the matter of machine guns America has lead in the invention. The Gatling gun was invented in 1861 by a Dr. Gatling of Chicago, and was really a good gun and used extensively in the war with Spain. This gun turned on a crank like a hand organ and it fired at the rate of about ten a second. This gun has been superseded by vastly more effective weapon that does not turn on a crank at all, you pull the trigger and it does the rest firing at the rate of about two hundred and fifty shots in about twenty five seconds. When the trigger is pulled a fresh cartridge is discharged and that reloads the gun.

At the present time there are four types of guns used in our army and all are American inventions. They are the Maxim-called the Vickers; the Colt; the portable Hotchkiss, also called the Benet-Mercie; and the Lewis. When Howard Maxim invented and developed his gun he made demonstrations before many distinguished witnesses, notably the Kaiser. Not all of them were interested and some dismissed the idea of the invention with the statement that it took too much ammunition and was too expensive to operate. Evidently all the witnesses were not of that opinion for it was found at the beginning of the present war in 1914 that the German army under the Kaiser had 50,000 of these Maxim guns with which to begin their work of death and destruction while other nations are still hard pressed for arms and ammunition. Truly it is a wise man that is in a position to see and know the danger afar off.

BUILD NOW!

Buying lumber at this time is the best investment you ever made. There are several very good reasons.

Unusual conditions make it possible to get twice as much lumber as you did in 1914 for the same amount of farm produce.

I nvestment in lumber and the placing of new buildings on your property will increase its value out of all proportion to the lumber cost.

L umber—the world's greatest building material—has advanced much less than any other material used for building.

Double value can be had without sacrificing quality—and the lumber of today is better than ever before.

Nothing is more important than conservation at this time, and all grain, stock and implements must be properly sheltered.

O pportunity—such as you have NOW—may never come again. After the war, lumber prices may be higher.

We are giving you this information in the right spirit—with a desire to see you buy when you can get more for your farm produce.

BUILD NOW.HIBBARD

After an illness covering more than five years, Mr. J. H. Hibbard died last Wednesday at his home on Hamilton avenue, of paralysis.

He was 77 years of age and moved to this county from Madison about fifteen years ago. Besides his widow, he is survived by one son, Earnest Hibbard, and one daughter, Mrs. E. B. Ray of Buckeye.

After funeral services conducted by Rev. F. D. Palmer at the home, the remains were interred at Buckeye last Thursday.

WELL RECEIVED

One of the best talks ever heard here on the conservation of food was that given by Miss Mary Sweeney, Dean of the Home Economics department of Kentucky University, Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Club rooms. She was brought here under the auspices of the Woman's Club and it was unfortunate indeed that more people did not hear her. She has been asked to return again, and in the event she does, the lecture will be given, either at the court house or the school auditorium.

HOUSE BUILT OF STRAW.

A Logan county, Colorado, farmer has literally built a house of straw, but built it in so substantial a manner that it makes a very comfortable home for himself and family. Bales of cement-covered straw were laid like blocks of stone for walls, with concrete on the inside and out. The house is 48 by 18 feet in size, has six rooms, and bears the appearance of a concrete building. Spaces were left in the thick walls for windows. The inside walls and ceiling are plastered, and the house has a single roof. It cost but $270, exclusive of labor and furnishes a comfortable habitation.

Chamberlain and Dragon.

Lady Jeune once asked Joseph Chamberlain why, in his opinion, so many men fall short of their ambition. Mr. Chamberlain answered: "They fail to the place where they turn back. They may have killed the dragon at the first bridge, and at the second, perhaps even at the third; but dragons are always more formidable the farther we go. Many turn back disheartened, and very few will slay the monsters to the end, but those who do have won forever."

Insect Language.

Insects, like birds and animals, have their calls, naturalists say. But the sounds they produce include the rubbing together of their limbs or wing covers and the vibration of their wings, so they cannot always be spoken of as voices. Flies and bees undoubtedly mean something when they hum louder and louder.

Demanding Attention.

Irene's mother was ill, and sympathizing visitors sat at her bedside, directing all their attention to the invalid. The little girl stood by quietly for a while, till she could bear the neglect no longer. Holding up her hand, she began looking for some injury, and finding an imaginary trace of a forgotten hurt, she exclaimed reproachfully, "Yes, but look at me. I dot a sore finger!"

Ringling Chime Bells.

When first introduced, chime bells were rung by a number of men, each grasping a rope from one particular bell and striking it at the precise moment the leader pointed a finger at it for a signal. The custom originated in Europe, and was imported into this country when the first chimes were brought over. This was shortly after the country's independence was declared, the new bells being placed in Trinity church, New York city. It required seven men to ring the seven bells, and it was not until 1800 that a plan was devised whereby one man alone was able to ring the bells.

Small College Has Its Own Work to Do and Must Do It Efficiently

By L. P. POWELL, President of Hobart College

There are a few small colleges that stay small, and unless some of them mend their ways they will grow yet smaller as the years go by; for supporters are not going to confuse smallness with inefficiency, and the small college, however small, must function efficiently, or it will cease to have a reason for existence. But here and there you find a small college of which the alumni can proudly as well as truly say, with Daniel Webster, "It is a small college. And yet there are those who love it."

The small college is the real college. It has no ambition to be a university. It is not tainted seriously with the distinctively university spirit. It still stands for general mental discipline, a liberal outlook on life and what we call cultural interests, without longer narrowing the term merely to the pursuit of classical study.

The small college today must serve a valid purpose. It cannot rest on the laurels of the past.

The small college today must do well its own special work. Problems it has. What live institution has not problems, whether it is big or little? The small college has suffered much through the persistence of puerilities, but they are going. Sense and solidarity are taking their place. Brutal "hazing," vulgar "horsing," premature "rushing," vulgar "padding," and excessive drinking, made possible by scholarship funds given to the college by good Christians, are going because they have to go—and they are going rapidly because they cannot withstand the pitiless publicity of good breeding.

How to Make Torches for Boys in Trenches

Many women and schoolchildren are busy making trench torches for the American soldiers at the front, following the example of thousands of women in European countries. These torches are very easily made. Here are the directions given for their manufacture at home:

Spread out eight sheets of old newspaper and begin rolling at the long end. Roll as tightly as possible until the papers are half rolled. Then fold back the first three sheets toward the rolled part and continue to wrap around the roll almost to the first fold. Then fold back another three sheets and continue to wrap around the roll to the last margin of the paper. On

Even Steel Gets Tired; Engines Must Have Rest Just Like Human Beings

A train pulled into a station the other day several hours behind time—which in itself isn't anything unusual these strenuous days of railroading, says an exchange. When the engineer was asked why he could not make the time he said his engine was tired, that it had had no rest. A new employee smiled at the fellow, for he couldn't believe that a piece of steel actually required rest. But it is absolutely true, and the engineer understands it as does no other class of people.

An engine's working hours are as definitely fixed as a man's working hours. There is just as well defined limit to its endurance. It gets tired pulling a train, just as a man gets tired dragging a burden, and the more tired it becomes the less efficient it is, for all the world like a human being.

In the case mentioned nothing about the engine was broken. Its parts were well adjusted. But it had been sent out on the road for a second trip after having made a long, laborious run, and it was tired and didn't do its work as it would have done had it been allowed to rest for 24 hours.

Attic Is Made to Order as a Playroom for the Kiddies.

The attic now provides the home with the most delightful of playrooms, that show in every detail a thorough understanding of what children love, says an exchange. It is a retreat that is their very own, just as they would have dreamed it. If you told them that the alcoves were formed by chance in the plan of the big house, they would smile incredulously. There is an alcove for each child, where each has her own individual set of furniture, decorated with her own story-book pictures.

Deep shelves furnish cages in which the wild animals sleep at night; and the tired hobbyhorse finds a stable and rest. Baby has a playground all her own, out of danger from prancing steed and raging elephant. There is a quiet corner for nurse, too.

What wonderful things are to be seen from the high-up windows, where the sunbeams peep in to wake up the boys! Perhaps the view may show ships far out on the river or bay, or miles and miles of treetops tossed in the wind, and soft, white piled-up clouds.

A Parliament of Seven.

Excelling even the Scottish St. Kilda in loneliness is Pitcairn Island, a British possession in the Pacific, almost midway between Australia and South America. About two square miles in area, the island has a population of 169, including three Americans. The people are half-castes of Tahitian blood, but English is the only language spoken. A parliament, consisting of seven members, and boasting a president, a vice president, and a judge, conducts the affairs of the community. All persons above the age of eighteen can vote, and voting is done verbally. The natives are great music lovers, and take much pride in an organ presented to them by Queen Victoria. Sometimes a year passes without the arrival of a mail. It once happened that only two vessels called there during a period of 25 years.

Big Game Increasing.

British Columbia's big game is said to be increasing. In the seclusion of the deep forests and wild fastnesses of the mountains the black and grizzly bears, the moose, the caribou, the mule deer, the black-tail and coast deer, the Rocky Mountain goat and the sheep, ovis fannall, ovis canadensis and ovis stonell, the finest game animals on the continent, have been on the increase during the last few years, it is reported. In the United States, except in the game preserves, the larger game animals are melting away.

Completed Trench Torch.

this margin, consisting of two sheets, spread a little glue or paste and continue the rolling so as to make a compact roll of paper almost like a torch. Cut this into short lengths with a sharp knife. The pieces must then be boiled in enough paraffin to cover them for four minutes and then when they are taken out and allowed to cool they are ready to be put in boxes and sent to the front. Candle ends may be used for the paraffin, if any are available, or block paraffin may be purchased.

Not only do these torches help to dispel the darkness of the trenches, but three of them, used together, provide sufficient heat to cook the soldier's rations and give some warmth to the trench.

Nunn's Veiling.

It is said that the shoemaker shoes everyone well but himself. This is true in the case of a wealthy man named William Nunn of Teddington. He was a member of the famous lace making firm bearing his name—the first firm it is said to introduce lace-making into England. As a boy of eighteen he had fifteen hundred people under him.

He had a passion for designing beautiful lace, and for inventing improvements in lace machinery. Yet he lived the life of a neglected hermit and the windows of this man's house, who had adorned thousands of other people's windows were hung with dirty and dusty rags! Only a short while ago he died of cold and neglect.

SCHOOL NOTES.

L. H. S. TEAM WINS—In the corn judging contest in Lancaster, Dec. 1, the Lancaster High School won the prize, a base ball outfit. The agricultural clubs of Lancaster, Paint Lick, Buena Vista and Bryantsville were each represented by a capable team of three boys, but the Lancaster boys, George Swinebroad, Gordon Doty, and Clay Sutton, proved to be the better judges.

During the last month, B. A. Dawes, Rev. Callison and Rev. Palmeter, have spoken at the chapel hour. Their talks were interesting and instructive. Dr. Alexander Johnson of Philadelphia, chairman of Commission, appointed by Governor Stanley to investigate the conditions of the feeble-minded in Kentucky, spoke to the High School, Monday, Dec. 3. He discussed the training of the blind, deaf, and feeble minded, and pointed out our obligations to those unfortunate ones.

The regular weekly meetings of the literary societies are up to the average in interest and effort. The new plan of grouping the members and holding each group responsible for the program is working admirably with the boys.

The Older Boys Conference meets in Richmond, Dec. 7-9, George Swinebroad, Val Cook, Hudson Frisbie, Robert Ross, and probably several others, are planning to attend this conference.

Thought Something Missing.

Marion's grandfather was Scotch and a musician. Consequently he was delighted to entertain a gifted professional countryman, who was to appear at a theater. After dinner, when the guest had donned his kilts and was waiting for the car to take him to the theater, the children were admitted to the living room. Marion eyed the celebrity in wonder and awe, finally walking up to him, and as she touched his bare knee in amazement inquired, "Where your pants?"

Don't Buy a Wagon Until You Have Seen the Columbus

Before you decide on any wagon, examine the Columbus. Strongly built of the best possible material the Columbus wagon gives the most satisfactory service for the longest period of years. There is no secret in the notably long life of the Columbus wagon. It is the result of the methods employed in construction. There is no wood in this wagon which has not been air-dried under shelter from one to two years.

The axles and the spokes of the wheels are hickory; the hounds, bolsters and sandboards are oak, and the bottom of the box is straight grained flawless pine. These are just a few examples of the care which is taken to make this wagon as reliable as possible. The result is that the Columbus wagon is unbeatable in reliability and endurance. Come in and examine it for yourself. We know you will be pleased.

What About Speculation

An experienced stock broker, after retiring from business, made this significant remark: "I have never known a business man to speculate two years successfully." The fall of many a man may be traced to speculation. It is unsafe for any man with a limited amount of money to risk it in speculation. The Bank is the best and safest place for surplus money.

MRS. LOGAN R. CARPENTER

Writes Interestingly Of Their Auto Trip From Lancaster To Their Western Home In Red Rock, Okla.

Dear Mary:-

As I promised you, I shall send you a brief outline of our trip home from Ky. We left Preachersville Saturday morning, Oct. 26, in the rain. We passed thru Stanford, Danville, Lawrenceburg, Harrodsburg, Shelbyville, and St. Mathews into Louisville. This is a better pike than by way of Bardstons. We drove into Louisville about 3 P. M. and visited over night with an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Edmiston. Had a very pleasant visit with them in their beautiful home and left there Sunday morning about 9 o'clock for Vincennes Ind. We had not gone far when we found plenty of mud but it was a beautiful sunny day and we made good time. We crossed the Ohio river over the toll bridge at New Albany thru Pool into Indiana. We found fairly good roads. We arrived in Vincennes about six o'clock and took a room for the night. Vincennes has a population of 15,000 and a busy little city. It began raining about mid-night and rained the rest of the night. There was also quite an electrical storm that did quite a lot of damage.

Next morning we ate breakfast at 6 o'clock and started on our way by 7 A. M. We traveled all day thru mud and rain, pulling on low a good many miles. We made only 93 miles as it was so cold we stopped about 4 o'clock for the night in Odin Illinois. We were pretty well chilled and our car was a sight to see. We could hardly tell the color it was so splattered with mud and water. Odin is quite a mining town, also a railroad center on the B. and O. It was a dreadful cold night and next morning the ground was frozen hard. It was hard on tires but we made better time than thru the mud and water. However it stopped raining and the sun was shining once more.

We stopped at Shiloh and ate dinner and felt fortunate enough in getting vegetable soup and a fine chicken dinner. We could appreciate this after riding several hours in the cold. Shiloh was about two and a half hours drive to Saint Louis Missouri.

On nearing St. Louis we found splendid roads, the first really good highway since leaving Ky. We did not stop in St. Louis but drove right thru to St. Charles and ferried across the Missouri river. From St. Charles we drove to Warrenton and stopped at six o'clock for the night.

By this time the roads had been dragged and in much better condition for traveling. We drove from Warrenton to Sedalia, ate dinner in Columbia and again crossed the Missouri river on a ferry at Booneville and on to Sedalia for the night. Being tired we sought to retire early, forgetting it was Halloween, but soon awakened to the fact by the band coming down our way playing "Hot Time In The Old Town Tonight", followed by a mass of people in every imaginable costume, from the tiniest to the oldest. All traffic was stopped in the main part of the city for an hour or so and the crowd given full sway. From our room on the 3rd floor we could see it all and we enjoyed it with the rest.

We left Sedalia at eight next morning for Harrisonville Mo., to visit a brother, Reid Carpenter and family for a day or two. There we treated our car to a shower bath which greatly improved the looks of it as well as the color. Purchased two new tires and left there Saturday morning for Colony Kansas, the town near where I was born. There we visited and stopped over-night with one of my cousins who recently was struck by lightning and very seriously hurt, but now convalescing. We drove out to the cemetery Sunday morning and visited my grandparents, an aunt and uncle's graves, took a snap-shot of them, and from there we drove to Eldorado, my husband's old home, where father Carpenter settled in an early day. It now is one of the greatest oil fields in the United States. The Trap Shooters have one well producing 30,000 barrels per day. We stopped over night in Eldorado and I must say, on our entire trip thru to Kentucky and back this was the busiest place we found.

We drove from Eldorado to our home which looked real good to us after an absence of six weeks. Altho we found it very dry wheat was looking good.

It was a wonderful trip and one we all enjoyed. Going thru we burned 64 gallons of gasoline and made the trip without a puncture, but owing to the weather we found the roads better going thru than we did in coming back.

With western people the Kentuckians are noted for their hospitality and we found in visiting them that they are full worthy of the name they bear.

I must close wishing you all success and prosperity. Sincerely,

Mrs. Logan Carpenter, Red Rock Okla.

Think It Over.

Nothing is too high to be reached, or too good to be true.—Charles Gordon Ames.

Help Yourself.

There is in this world infinitely more joy than pain to be shared, if you will only take your share when it is set before you.—Ruskin.

Be Optimistic.

Believe and hope, says a writer. Hope so much that it will be difficult to believe all of it, but believe it anyway. In short—believe and hope that all you believe will come true; and hope and believe that all you hope will come to pass some day.

Beware of It!

There are two kinds of ignoble old age. One is decrepit, leery, tottering to the grave. It is the kind which moralists can use as a warning and a test. The other is the infinitely more dangerous kind. It reveals a sound constitution beneath the rags and defilement. It cannot be used as a text, for it works the other way. It seems to show that a man may drink, loaf and otherwise transgress, and yet keep going physically.—Atlantic Monthly.

Even-Toned Wood.

Small splinters of the wood of old Cremona violins, when vibrated with a bow, have been found to give invariably the same note; and that note is always a tone higher when the wood is taken from the belly of the instrument than when it comes from the back.

Milking Excited Him.

Henry, aged six, who had just been in the barn watching his uncle milk the cows, went in the house filled with excitement and sat down to eat his breakfast. Later when mother asked him why he didn't drink his coffee, he replied, "Oh, mother, I forgot to milk it!"

The Newest Theology.

A boy at a recent examination in Scripture was asked where Cain went after he killed Abel. He replied that he went to bed. The teacher wanted to know how he made that out. He said "It's in the chapter, sir, that Cain, after he had killed Abel, went to the land of Nod."—Christian Herald.

Big Sunflowers.

Giant sunflowers that grew in a garden at Llanduff, Wales, were raised from a seed brought from Australia, and one reached the extraordinary height of 12 feet. It held only one bloom, which was 16 inches in diameter. The giant entirely dwarfed its English cousins close by.

WAR NEWS OF THE WEEK

"Tell them there is no ground for the heresy that Germany cannot be beaten. Germany must be beaten. Germany can be beaten." This is the inspiring message that comes to America from Gen. Pershing thru Bishop Luther B. Wilson who has recently returned from Europe where he had gone on a Y. M. C. A. mission.

Highest praise and commendation have been given the American troops by the Generals in France. A few months ago these boys and men were quietly pursuing the even tenor of their way in the various pursuits of business. Now these same raw recruits are well developed, well trained soldiers, taking their places beside those who have made war a business for years, and doing so creditably to themselves and the nation they represent. This shows the adaptability and the versatile character of the American.

It is now definitely known that many American troops took an active part in the drive on Cambrai.

A number of American army engineers working on the British railways in the region of Gouzeourt were caught in the German turning movement. They escaped by lying flat on the ground and hiding in the shell hole until the British reached them, when they exchanged their shovels for guns and took an active and enthusiastic part in the fight. Great admiration is expressed for them concerning their coolness and intrepidity.

Sergeant Lamb, an American, who has been enlisted in the Royal Flying Squadron since 1912 has reached Louisville, wearing on his sleeve a little silver star that tells the story of his discharge. He will be instructor at the Darling School of Aviation. He will also fly from the Courier-Journal building on the night of Dec. 24th, bearing a message of good cheer to the soldiers of Camp Taylor.

It is feared that Russia, with her army put to rout, and in the control of the Bolsheviks, will undertake to make peace with Germany. Ambassador Francis has instructed Maj. Kerth to enter protests similar to that of the other allies to any negotiations for an armistice between Russia and Germany. The aid that the United States has given to Russia was with the understanding that Russia was to continue in the war.

In speaking of the Bolsheviks, we would remember that "Bolsheviki" is the plural, and the terms "Bolsheviki Government" are equal to saying the German's Government. The proper term is the "Bolshevik Government." The Bolsheviks being applied to the members in the plural sense. This Bolshevik crowd are described as a swarm of agitators who started the most elaborate, systematic and insidious propaganda for the purpose of poisoning the minds of the ignorant against their officers, the Government, and the Allies. The situation could hardly be worse than of Russia, yet Professor Lord, of Harvard writes an article covering the whole situation in which he states that he believes Russia will right herself and the struggle for freedom will not be in vain.

The Austro-German bombardment is still intense along the Italian front, but aid is nearing defenders as vast forces of men and munition are approaching. While digging trenches on the Asiago front, the Italian soldiers have unearthed the fossil remains of mastodons.

At a recent conference the Kings of Norway, Sweden and Denmark have decided to remain neutral during the war and help one another economically, as long as the war lasts.
